Software Architecture summary

Maarten Duijn

Table of Contents

GitBook Example

Welcome in your GitBook!

Ch9 Identifying and engaging stakeholders

A Stakeholder in the architecture of a system is an individual, team, organization, or classes thereof, having an interest in the realization of the system

Know relative importance of stakeholders and their needs

Include adequate stakeholder representation across the board: Tech and non-tech people